LET US DO OUR DUTY.

Let the white men of Wake do their duty. Self preservation and a proper sense of pride demand that they no longer allow negroes and negro lovers to control the county. There is a sentiment in the State that if Wake county, with 1,200 white majority, elects Radicals, it ought to be in the negro district. Read the following from the Warrenton Gazette:

If Wake does not redeem herself in November next, she ought to be classed with the politically damned counties and put in the "black belt." She deserves no better fate.

HOW THEY LIE.

The Desperate Resort of a Revenue Boss to Make Campaign Fodder--A Mean and Villianous Representation by a Rascal of a Politician.

The Davie Times of this week has the following:

"We are informed that Revenue officer John Hendricks, who is the "Boss" Revenue officer's candidate for the House in the county, in discussing at Farmington the bill appropriating money to keep up the military companies of the State, after using language too indecent for us to publish, charged that on the Sunday before the bill was voted on, a "political harrangue" was made by a preacher in Raleigh in favor of the bill. The facts as we learn them were that Rev. L. L. Nash, chaplain of the Raleigh military company and a consecrated Methodist minister, did in the First Baptist church ter," by implication charges the good Baptist people of Raleigh with permitting a "political harangue" to be made in their church on Sunday, and he openly charges so good a man as Rev. L. L. Nash with shamefully belittling his sacred office and desecrating the holy church in which he stood by "making a political harangue" on Sunday for political purposes, and that the Democrats had prevailed on him to do it. What say the good Baptists and Methodists of Davie county? Will you vote for this "Revenue up-start" who so shamefully slanders your church and minister?"

[The above goes to show to what desperate straits some "rads" are reduced for material with which to work on the prejudices of the ignorant. It also shows how indecently low down some "rads" will get to accomplish that end. It is only necessary to say that Rev. Dr. Nash was the regular chaplain of the Guard; that he preached a sermon to the Guard once month regularly, alternating the service at the various churches in the city. This practice was kept up for some time, and several sermons were preached by the the chaplain, both before and after the time referred to by the "radical" who is so badly off for want of something to talk about. And it is very safe to say that at the time, Dr. Nash knew nothing gospel of Democracy. at all about the provisions of the State Guard bill. It had not been discussed. But why does the "revenuer" want to kick up so much fuss over that bill?

Information has just been received from Pernell, in this county, of an attempted suicide there last week.

Mr. H. Baker attempted to kill himself by taking laudanum. He had been drinking to some extent the week before, and in that condition he abused his wife to a great degree. Then he became angry with his employer, Mr. Edwards, for some a two ounce phial of laudanum. He drank | the opposite side. the fluid and was afterwards found lying on a bale of cotton sleeping very heavily with the phial by his side.

A physician was summoned, a crowd congregated and after some vigorous pounding and pulling about, Baker was revived to consciousness and is now reported as being well.

The Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber of commerce meets tonight. Some very weighty and impor tant matters will be brought up, principal among which will be a plan for paying the sidewalks all over town, regardless of cost of expense. Is everybody ready to deal with the matter?

And there are some things "on the move" which may be reported. A meeting of progressive business men was held in the Mayor's office last Saturday and something great and fortuitous is on the verge of happening. There may be something said about it. Come and see.

The Gruber Concert.

The Gruber Family gave a concert in Metropolitan hall last night which was enjoyed and appreciated by the andince present.

Members of the family from three years old and upward participated. Miss Gruber is quite a proficient and pleasing pianist. Mr. Gruber, the head of the family, is a whole orchestra in himself at times. Last night one of his feats was performing on the violin and violincello at the same time. It is interesting to see this done.

The concert will be repeated to-night for the benefit of St. John's hospital. and all who go may expect an entertaining and meritorious entertainment.

Five new scholars were enrolled at the Central Methodist. Sunday school last Sunday. A theatrical company begins a week's engagement in Metropolitan on next Monday night. A large colored military company arrived in the city from Charlotte yesterday to attend the colored fair. Twelve long freight trains were sent out from the Raleigh & Gaston railroad depot vesterday before twelve o'clock. How is that for business?

A new residence is going up on Boylan Avenue. There is nothing strange about this, for they are going up all over town. Raleigh grows steadily and never spasmodically.

A series of meetings was begun in Edenton Street M. E. church last night by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon. The meetings will be continued nightly through the week.

Ta rick Spencer, an old colored man who died in this city recently, held a life insurance policy in the Virginia Life Insurance Company, and on Saturday his widow was paid that amount.

Mr. Jos. E. Pogue, of Raleigh, was awarded the premium for the best display of manufactured tobacco at the fair, and he also won the premium for the best box of manufactured tobacco.

Builders and contractors will be interested in an announcement made by Maj Jno. C. Winder in this issue. He will receive bids for the construction of the new union depot until November 1st.

Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1891, better known as the "old reliable" has made its fifty-fourth annual appearance. It is to be hoped that Mr. James H. Enniss, the vetuan publisher, will live long enough to issue fifty-four more editions.

Dress Goods.

This is getting to be a familiar theme; at all rates we know you have read of dress goods quite frequently this season under our name, and why do we say so much of dress goods? Simply this reason: We have the dress goods to sell and you want to buy dress goods and we are willing to tell you what kind of dress goods and what kind of trimmings we have for them, as we don't rely on name or friendship to sell our goods But merit is bound to win, and if you will listen to what we shall endeavor to tell you we will tell you only the truth and you will be greatly benefited thereby. NEW YORK, October 20. - Mesers. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-might say : "A day of the largest receipts on record, a decline of two points in Liverpool, rather closer money in New York and London and an intensely bearish sentiment, that seems to grow more pronounced as prices decline, are the influences that have affected a depression of about ten points in the market for the contracts here to-day. The general opinion seems to be that lower prices are inevitable in consequence of the necessity for immediate realization upon the large receipts coming to hand."
